

Resources for Teachers to develop a critical anti-racist lens
Selection by Rabia Khokhar, teacher-librarian
June, 2020

- Diversity in Children’s Literature (Infographic):
<https://www.firstbookcanada.org/blog/2019/07/10/encouraging-diversity-in-childrens-books/>
- 10 Quick Ways to Analyze Children’s Books for Racism and Sexism (Article)
By the Council on Interracial Books for Children
<https://www.chil-es.org/10ways.pdf>
- Mirrors, Windows and Sliding Doors (Doctor Rudine Sims Bishop): (Youtube Video)
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=\_AAu58SNSyc&feature=emb\_logo
- Elementary Teacher’s Federation of Ontario (ETFO) Social Justice Begins With Me (Resource)
-Bookmarks to critically assess children’s literature
<http://www.etfo.ca/BuildingAJustSociety/EquityResources/Pages/SocialJustice.aspx>
- Building on Windows and Mirrors: Encouraging the Disruption of Single Stories Through Children’s Literature written by Tschida et al. (Article)
https://www.researchgate.net/publication/268446210\_Building\_on\_Windows\_and\_Mirrors\_Encouraging\_the\_Disruption\_of\_Single\_Stories\_Through\_Children's\_Literature